

1. According to the religion of ancient Egypt, this god had the head of an ibis and was the patron of scribes and writing. Who was he?
2. What English mathematician calculated the value of Pi to 707 decimal places and published his results in 1873?
3. What famed philosopher wrote, convictions are more dangerous enemies of truth than lies?
4. To which phylum of the animal kingdom do both crayfish and pillbugs belong?
5. Who was the designer of Czechoslovakian Tatra T11 automobile, which was known as "the people's car"?
6. Which Beatles song starts, "Well, she was just seventeen."?
7. What does the Latin phrase non illegitimi te carborundum mean?
8. What is the name of the disease that is known as the "Black Death" and what year did it first make its appearance in England?
9. What is clapsheet?
10. According to Greek mythology, who invented the sport of boxing?
11. Which ancient Olympic sport included both wrestling and boxing?
12. From what material was the ancient discus made?
13. In what arena were chariot races held?
14. Which ancient Olympic contest included discus, javelin, long jump, running and wrestling?
15. Halloween is a combination of which two pagan holidays?
16. What does the name Halloween mean?

17. Where was the first official celebration of Halloween?